Internal Selection Results - Erasmus+ PhD Student Mobility
Sapienza University of Rome, Italy - Academic Year 2026/2027

1. Applications received

A total of one (1) application file was received for the Erasmus+ PhD student mobility opportunity at Sapienza University of Rome. Following the administrative and academic review, the application was found admissible and retained for selection. No application was excluded.

Applications received	Admissible	Excluded	Selected for nomination
1	1	0	1

2. Selection criteria

The application was examined against the eligibility and documentary requirements stated in the call. Because only one application was received, no comparative numerical ranking between multiple candidates was required. The review covered the following criteria:

Criterion	Requirement / Basis of review
PhD eligibility	PhD candidate starting from at least the second year.
Administrative completeness	Submission of the mandatory application documents required by the call.
Academic standing	Student ranking in the class and academic record. The applicant declared a ranking in the first 10%.
English proficiency	English-language certificate meeting the minimum B2 requirement.
Academic profile and motivation	Motivation letter and brief CV in English.
Host invitation	Invitation letter from Sapienza University indicating the inviting department/contact person.
Mobility work plan	Work plan in English signed by the thesis supervisor.
Doctoral authorization	Required authorization from the supervisor, head of department, and head of the doctoral training committee.

3. Classification and selection result

Rank	Full Name	Faculty	Department	Speciality	Academic Ranking	Result
1	Loucif Djouhaina	Faculty of Letters and Foreign Languages	English Department	Literature	A - First 10%	Selected for nomination

As the sole applicant fulfilled the mandatory eligibility and documentary requirements, her application was ranked first and selected by the University of El Oued for nomination to Sapienza University of Rome.

4. Important note on final acceptance

This result constitutes the internal selection and nomination by the University of El Oued. Final acceptance and confirmation of the Erasmus+ mobility remain the responsibility of Sapienza University of Rome. The receiving university will contact the selected candidate directly and will communicate the final outcome of her application to her.
